

HELLO AGAIN

VOL. 35 No. 3

MAY – JUNE, 2004

A PERSONAL NOTE: If anyone wants information in HA, please email me the exact wording if you can. I can then paste it right in the newsletter. Of course I will accept information in regular mail from everyone else.

SECOND REVISED ULTIMATE HISTORY: Just a reminder that this book was originally written in 1992 and is the first and original book listing Network radio programming and the shows that are in circulation.

The Second Supplement to the 2nd Revised Ultimate History is now available for $6.50 including P&H. Both supplements are $11.50 including P&H

The 2001 “2nd Revised Ultimate History” with the first and second supplement is $55 plus $4. Please send information for the third supplement when you can, the earlier the better. I will need the information by October 1, 2004.

I did not write a Supplement 6 for my Necrology. Most of the information is in HA anyway and there is much info on the internet, especially by Ron Sayles. His web site is <http://mywebpage.netscape.com/bogusotr/instant/taz.html>

CONVENTION 2004: Dates are Oct 21 – 24, 2004 at the Holiday Inn, Newark, NJ. Our web site will keep you up to date. Note new web site name at end of HA.

CONVENTION 2003: 2003 Convention booklets are available for $3.00 including P&H. There are many guests bios and pictures. Our handouts were letter openers this year. Send me a SASE for one. 2002 pens are available for $1.00 including P&H. 2001 pens are available for $1.00 each including P&H. Special 25th Anniversary small desk clocks are available for $5 including P&H. Past Convention Booklets are $2.50 each including P&H.

All of the sessions were video recorded by Satellite Media Production. You may order them as a complete set or by individual sessions. Please contact Fred Berney at Satellite Media Production, P.O. Box 638, Walkersville, MD 21793-0638. Phone 800-747-0856. Email: berney@fred.net

Friends of Old-Time Radio Script Contest

The 11th annual script writing contest is now open. This year your half-hour script must be based on any recognizable classic radio program - comedy or drama, with original characters and new ones added if you wish.

But please, no spoofs with Jack Benny, Abbott and Costello, others. That hasn't worked in the past. The script must be ready to produce - typed double spaced, large enough for actors to read, all sound cues included. Usual format includes short opening, middle and closing commercials, whether for a product that existed then, or one of your own. Try to set the story in its original time period, unless science fiction. Try to keep cast to ten or less, although some actors can double in smaller parts.

First prize in the contest is $200, and the script will be performed live at our 2005 convention. Second prize winner, which will not be performed, is $100.

Scripts must be submitted by August 31, 2004 to Dave Zwengler, 319 Plymouth Road, North Brunswick NJ 08902 (732 - 0940 - 7639). Three experienced judges will pick the winning scripts and detailed suggestions for improvements will be sent to non-winners. If you want a primer on preferred page format, send SASE to Mr. Zwengler.

This year's winner, "You Are There" by Edgar Russell, III will be performed at our October convention.

CLUB NEWS: Bradley Thunderbird Phoenix, African American and Native American. Born (Brooklyn, NYC), raised (Bay Shore, NY), and lives (Suffolk County, NY) on Long Island, NY. He writes poetry, short stories, and scripts. His plays are performed on stage, in digital studios (committed to CDs), and live over the radio and Internet on 2, 3, and 4-hour specials over WUSB - 90.1 FM, a listener-supported radio station, Stony Brook University, NY. Bradley has written, produced, and directed over 100 of his radio plays (various lengths and genres, most under 15 minutes). Gary Yoggy reports that the 17th annual Visit to the Golden Age of Radio staged by Elmira (NY) Little Theatre community drama group under his direction was held April 2 & 3 to sold out houses. Special guest this year was Hal Stone who re-created his role as Jughead in an episode of ARCHIE ANDREWS and as the lead character in "A Shipment of Mute Fate" episode of ESCAPE. The group also presented an episode of MY FRIEND IRMA and THE ADVENTURES OF PHILIP MARLOWE. Gary has been staging these programs of old re-creations in Elmira annually since 1988 when he inaugurated the series with WAR OF THE WORLDS on its 50th anniversary. With the exception of Hal all of the actors were local amateurs. Bart Curtis did the sound effects and Ed Clute provided the music.

Special Guests To Headline Workshop Staff Audio Theatre Workshop June 5-13, 2004, West Plains, Missouri Visit www.natf.org.

On Saturday, June 12, 2004, when the Audio Theatre Workshop's (ATW) live performance goes on the air, our staff and participants will be joined by noted audiobook narrator and Broadway actress Barbara Rosenblat. The National Audio Theatre Festivals will be hosting its annual ATW from June 5 through June 13, 2004, at Southwest Missouri State University in West Plains. "Past years have seen notables like David Ossman and Simon Jones among the cast and crew," said NATF President Charles Potter. "This year we are very lucky to have Barbara teaching and working with us."

Barbara's award winning career includes work on two continents. She spent many years in England, working in West End theater, television, film and BBC Radio. Over the years she has won numerous Audie Awards for narration, from the Audio Publisher's Association, and is among AudioFile Magazine's Golden Voice narrators. On her return to the States, she began an alliance with Recorded Books after being introduced to narrating at the American Foundation for the Blind. She spent nearly two years on Broadway, where she created the role of Mrs. Medlock in the musical The Secret Garden.

A Conversation with Corey Burton

"This year's keynote address will be somewhat different from that of past presentations," explained George Zarr, NATF's 2004 Program Chair and Live Performance Producer. "Corey Burton, whose voice acting career spans more than 30 years and is best known for his work in animated feature films, will join Barbara Rosenblat to discuss the many varied and unique characters they have created for different media outlets."

Corey Burton began voice acting at age 17, doing a sound-alike for Disney as Hans Conreid. He studied radio acting with the legendary Daws Butler (Time for Beany, Merrie Melodies, Yogi Bear) for several years, and went on to work with nearly all of the original Hollywood radio actors in classic style radio dramas. Corey's large number of audio drama works include such memorable parts as Jerry from Alien Worlds, Mahatma Gandhi from Steve Allen's Meeting of Minds, and A Toast to N.P.R.
